

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Criminal No. 05-cr-207-01-SM

Dominick Bailey

ORDER FOR DETENTION OF MENTAL COMPETENCY OF DEFENDANT

On October 24, 2005, in connection with a scheduled arraignment/detention hearing in this case, the defendant, by and through his counsel, Sandra Bloomenthal, moved for a hearing to determine the competency of the defendant to stand trial under 18 U.S.C. § 4241(a). Debra M. Walsh, Assistant U.S. Attorney, had no objection and assented to the motion. Based upon the facts outlined by Attorney Bloomenthal, the court finds reasonable cause to believe that the defendant may presently be suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to stand trial.

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant shall be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period not to exceed thirty days for placement in a suitable facility where an examination of the defendant's mental condition can be conducted to determine his competency to stand trial. The examining officials shall prepare a report of their findings pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4247(b), which report shall be filed with this court.

SO ORDERED.
